Arabic Syllabus

We follow the ICO syllabus for Arabic. It includes topics to acquire vocabulary for conversational use and religious topics like: Ayaat of the Quran, Hadith, lives of the companions and important Islamic lessons. The books also cover grammar (Nahw) and morphology (Sarf).

Our syllabus covers the first 7 ICO books, approximately one book per year, over the 7 years of Arabic from Year 5 to Year 11. To further strengthen the foundations of grammar and morphology (Sarf), students will cover an additional book on grammar and one on morphology.

The students will learn the linguistic Tafseer of Juz Amma (30th Juz) in Arabic in Year 10 and 11 alongside the ICO books.
